

Hannah's

Weekly Message

Last week was fantastic. I enjoyed the intern meeting, got chocolate for Valentine's Day and spent a weekend at a friend's place in the Garigal National Park which is near Gordon.

Last week's intern meeting took place at Grill'd where we had delicious burgers. After dinner, at about eleven o'clock, we headed for the Opera House for some drinks. The intern meeting is a great opportunity to meet new people and spend a fun night out. The next social night will be at the beginning of March.
